First English Lutheran Church

Connected in Christ, we grow in faith, live with hope, and reach out to share God's love with others.

Giving Credit Where It's Due

First English has an amazing staff that works together with laughter, humility, kindness, and efficiency. Let's kick off 2026 by thanking our office staff. Next month, we'll honor our musicians, Dave and Tammy, and our property manager, John.

Janet is our Administrative Assistant who holds it all together. If you love the slides used for Worship, she's the one to thank. She's also responsible for easy-to-read worship bulletins, preparing the sanctuary for worship, copyright permissions, membership rolls, volunteers, phone calls, office communication, and much more. She welcomes and encourages those who visit the office, and handles difficult situations with grace. Thank you, Janet!

Rhonda is our Ministry Associate who produces our Worship services for broadcast. This includes much pre- and post-service work. She also directs our weekly GLOW ministry to Howe School students. She supervises the volunteers and maintains contact with parents and the school's administration. She also plans and participates in the sessions. In addition, she fills in gaps in our congregational life in more ways than we can count. Thank you, Rhonda!

Sherri is our Financial Secretary, Community Outreach Coordinator, and the person who loves to add creative seasonal touches to our building. In addition to handling incoming monies, she coordinates our many community outreach activities. This involves juggling many balls (and volunteers) to accomplish each event. She's also responsible for producing our newsletter each month. Thank you, Sherri, for your creativity, kindness, and enthusiasm!

Val has been our bookkeeper for a couple years. She handles all outgoing monies with steady and accurate efficiency. She attends Council and Finance meetings, shares monthly reports, and helps Finance Ministry put together a good budget for each coming year. She usually works after 4 p.m., but some of us who work later still get to enjoy her friendliness and good humor. Thank you, Val, for your excellent work!

You know, it's the staff people who keep the congregation's life running smoothly - even though the pastor often gets the credit. Please let our staff know how much you appreciate them during 2026!

Thanking God for our great staff,

Pastor Cheryl

A Fresh Start

by Robyn Austin

Happy New Year! And happy new YOU – if that is your desire.

January often arrives quietly, especially when it brings new snow. Overnight, the world can be transformed - yesterday's footprints softened, tire tracks smoothed away, familiar paths made new again. A clean slate stretches before us, inviting us to begin again.

We talk a lot about “fresh starts” at the beginning of a new year. Resolutions are made, calendars are empty, and hope feels a little closer to the surface. Yet as Christians, we should know that God's gift of new beginnings is not limited to January 1. God is in the business of renewal every single day.

Martin Luther reminded the church that baptism is not a one-time event locked in the past, but a daily reality. Each day, we die to sin and rise to new life. Each night, we come before God honestly, carrying the marks of the day - our worries, our regrets, our sharp words, and missed chances.

And each night, Jesus meets us not with condemnation, but with grace. Forgiveness falls gently, like fresh snow, covering what was and preparing the ground for what can be.

This is good news for those of us who didn't end last year the way we hoped. It's good news for anyone who already feels behind on resolutions or burdened by habits that won't disappear overnight. God's mercy does not depend on our willpower or our ability to “do better this time.” It depends on Christ alone.

As we step into this new year, may we notice the small signs of grace around us: a quiet snowfall, a kind word, a moment of peace at the end of a long day. May we trust that God is always offering us a clean slate - not just once a year, but again and again.

Whatever tracks you carry into this January, know this: God's grace is deeper, wider, and more enduring. In Christ, every day begins with mercy, and every morning invites us to start anew. Amen.

25 Food Baskets were ordered, prepped, and given to families at Howe Elementary School.

Thanks to all of you who came in to help!
